

MAs assured full support of judiciary, police

ISLAMABAD—Musalihat Anjuman (MA) Project working under the Ministry of Local Government and Rural Development is being provided help by judiciary and police.

The project goal is to assist women and other vulnerable sections of society in improving their conditions through safeguarding and promoting their rights and lawful entitlement.

In a meeting of NPD and NPM held with IGP Balochistan, MAs were assured full support of police, Ministry of Local Government and Rural Development official told APP here Monday.

In this connection, the higher judiciary in Punjab has shown interest in helping MAs while the higher courts have said that the cases will be sent to MAs and their decisions will be given ample value.

Main objectives of the project includes constitution and mobilization of Musalihat Anjumans in all Unions Councils in the selected districts (under section 102, LGO 2001).—APP
