

Monday

June 25, 2007

Jamadi-us-Sani 9, 1428 A.H.

INTERNATIONAL

THE NEWS

Musalihat Anjumans resolve local rows

Islamabad

Musalihat Anjumans, which offer alternate resolution in local disputes, has made possible the access of vulnerable segments of the society particularly women to justice.

According to official sources, these Musalihat Anjumans being worked under the Ministry of Local Government and Rural Development have successfully achieved their target of gender justice.

"We faced many challenges to achieve goals and our success was not possible without support of the community, judiciary, police and political representatives especially at grassroot level," said National Project Manager of Gender Justice Through Musalihat Anjuman Project Hamid Raza Afridi while talking to this news agency. — APP